

MISSION STATEMENT

The Coalition for the Global Commons

We will meet the critical challenge of building a peaceful and sustainable world by engaging people everywhere in the realization of their rights and responsibilities as sovereign citizens of the Global Commons. We will consult, network and debate the world's key interdependent issues, and draw upon the creative capacities of individuals from governments, businesses, multilateral institutions, civil society organizations and the public in developing just and effective solutions for these urgent transnational problems.